I am one of the executors under his will. He has left a number of legacies and the balance of his paying the above legacies is to be handed over to the college Govt for establishing a chair in Ayurveda in their College. The exact amount can be arrived at only after collecting all his assets & legatees. I think it will be about Rs 25,000/- It will be better if you go over to Madras at your earliest convenience. I will be able to give you detailed information personally.

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:—

Bequest of the late Vaidyaratna Pandit D. Gopalacharlu of Madras in favour of the Ayurvedic College at Mysore.

Page 1 to 3 of office Note. In February 1921 Mr. A. Mrityunjaya Iyer, the then Under Secretary to Government in the Muzrai Department, brought to the notice of Government that the late Vaidyaratna Pandit D. Gopalacharlu of Madras had willed away the residue of his properties which would be left after meeting certain legacies and other charges, and which was estimated about Rs.25,000 for an Ayurvedic chair in the Ayurvedic College at Mysore. Dr. M. Subrahmanya Iyer who was one of the executors of the Pandit's will was therefore written to in the matter and after a considerable amount of correspondence, Mr. Madhava Menon, who is a joint - executor to the estate of the late Pandit, has intimated that the total realizations from the assets of the deceased after meeting the legacies payable under the will have amounted to Rs.19,486-0-2 besides certain share bonds held by the deceased for a sum of Rs.750, and he has sent a cheque for the above-mentioned sum of Rs.19,486-0-2 on the Indian Bank, Madras, in favour of the Revenue Secretary and has also forwarded certain share bonds for Rs.750 held by the deceased of which Rs.400 has been paid up.

G and its enclosures

It is ascertained that the late Pandit Gopalacharlu was a native of Mysore, that he passed out of the Sanskrit College at Mysore and that he also received his Ayurvedic education and training in Mysore. According to his will, the bequest made by him is to be utilized towards a stipend for a chair in the Mysore Ayurvedic College, for research work therein or for such other purposes of the institution as the Government of Mysore may think fit. I beg to solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to the acceptance of the bequest and to the Government placing on record their appreciation of the loyalty and patriotism displayed by the late Pandit Gopalacharlu in making such a munificent bequest for the encouragement of the Ayurvedic system of medicine in Mysore.

Detailed proposals for the utilization of the amount will be submitted in due course, in consultation with the - Muzrai Commissioner, for the sanction of His Highness.

Mysore Govt to be utilised according to their discretion" Apart from the interpretation of the portion of the donor's will, it is submitted that the investment that gives us the highest rate of interest is the Mysore 5% Loan and the annual interest on 20,000 Rs will be only Rs 1250 which is hardly adequate for the Ayurvedic Chair.

Orders are solicited as to whether the utilisation of this endowment and the other matters of detail may be reserved for consideration in connection with the financial provision req. for the reorganisation of the Ayurvedic Studies which is being separately worked up.

Copy of the Probate of the Will of the late Vaidyaratna Pandit D. Gopalacharlu.

Sri

On the 25th September 1920, the Will executed and left by me Divi Gopalacharlu, Son of Divi Rama-krishnacharlu residing in house bearing number 53 Acharappan street, Madras while in enjoyment of sound understanding and memory, is as follows:-

I and my brothers are divided. In respect of the properties that fell to my share at our division, I and my son Srinivasacharlu became divided by means of panchayet. For my half share, I got some cultivable lands and one house. In respect of the properties which came to me out of ancestoral properties and in respect of my self acquired properties, I possess absolute right and have absolute power of disposition of any kind I please, either by means of this Will or in any other manner.

My self acquired properties are in the shape of Life Insurance Policy amounts, shares in companies, medicines (assets in medical trade and other moveable properties. I have under this Will, appointed Ayurvedacharya N. Madhava Menon, my brother Divi Desikacharlu and Doctor M. Subramanyam Iyer B.A. M.B & B.M. executors. The said executors shall, after me, take possession of my entire estate and dispose of in the manner stated hereunder.

The net produce (or income) from the ancestoral lands that fell to my share in Kistna District shall be caused to be given to my wife during her whole life-time. Those lands shall on that account, be put into her possession. She shall be entitled to reside, during her whole life time in the aforesaid house that fell to my share. My daughter Pushpavalli Thayaramma shall, during my wife's whole life-time, be entitled to reside in that house.

I write the Codicil this day to the Will which I executed on the 25th sept 1920 as follows:—

All the jewels of my daughter shall be given to her, of the 3 big Silver plates I shall be given to my daughter I to my son Srinivasacharlu and I. to N. Madhava Menon. The small Silver plates and two spoons shall be given to my younger brother Desikacharlu. My younger brother Desikacharlu's Silver articles, my son's Silver articles and my daughter's Silver articles are with me. The articles of the respective persons shall be delivered to him or her. As the fancy Silver tumblers, gold articles, two wrist watches and one pocket watch which came (as presents) at the marriage of my son are his articles, they shall be given away to him alone. My finger ring and my ear ring shall be given to my younger brother Desikacharlu. The gold effigy of Sri Venkateswara Swami that is in my watch chain I shall be given to my Grand daughter Kamalamma. My gold (hand) watch shall be given to Dr M. Subramanya Iyer Garu. Out of my dress, one over coat shall be given to the said Subramanya Iyer and the other over coat to N. Madhava Menon.

My shirts, Silk, tweed coats etc shall be taken by the said Subramanya Iyer and Madhava menon in equal halves. My wearing clothes shall be taken equally by Desikacharlu and Madhava menon.

The silk clothes shall be taken by Madhava Menon. There is a pair of Shawls. Desikacharlu and Madhava menon shall each take one thereof. My big hand stick shall be given to Madhavamenon.

Should there be any more minor gold or silver jewels or articles and should there be minor clothes, all of them shall be given to my younger brother Desikachariu.

The whole of the share that was allotted to my younger brother Desikachariu at the time of the partition of amongst us brothers has been nominally made in my name. As the entire properties comprised in that share are his own, (they) shall be given to him.

Dear Sir,

& 18th March 23.

May I invite reference to your letter dated the 2nd November 1922 stating that the approximate amount recoverable from the estates of the late Pandit D. Gopalacharlu of Madras will be about - - Rs.15,000/- and that the exact amount will be intimated later on?

The subject of the grant of a site for building an Ayurvedic College and quarters for the tutorial staff as well as a Hospital etc., at Mysore has been under the active consideration of Government. A site has been selected ~~by the Government~~ and is likely to be granted to the Ayurvedic College, provided there are reasonable prospects of a building being put up shortly thereon in accordance with a design to be approved by Government.

If the residue ~~desired~~ revised by the late Mr. Gopalacharlu in favour of the College can be got soon, it will be of great help in constructing the College building and I shall approach Government with a request that some portion of the said building or Hospital may be allowed to be called after Mr.D.Gopalacharlu, so that it might serve as a monument of his liberality. I cannot give an assurance that my proposal will be accepted by Govern. ment, but I shall do whatever is reasonably possible to see that Mr.Gopalacharlu's name is associated in some way with the new buildings to be put up. Adverting to your letter No.1655/M.F.63-22-17 dated 1st November 1922 forwarding for necessary action, among others, the file relating to the reservation of a site for the construction of the Ayurvedic College, Mysore, I have the honor to state that I have discussed the matter with the Chairman of the City Improvement Trust Board, Mysore. From the tenor of Mr. C. Srikanteswara Aiyar's talk it appears to me that the Trust Board to whom the property now belongs will make over the site free of cost if early arrangements are made to begin construction on the said site.

2. The bequest said to have been made by the late Pandit D. Gopalacharlu of Madras for the improvement of the Ayurvedic educatio in Mysore will therefore come in handy in this connection. The residue devised by the late Pandit may be supplemented by a Government grant and the entire amount utilized for the construction of a College building. I therefore request that the Executors of the Estate of the late Pandit may kindly be written to and the amount, when received, set apart for this purpose.

Order. 1774-6 / Mag. 418-2015 & 4.6.24

The late Vaidyaratna Pandit D. Gopalacharlu of Madras who was a Mysorean and who received his ayurvedic education and training in Mysore and passed out of the Mysore Sanskrit College, by his will left to the Govt. of Mysore the residue of his properties after meeting certain legacies and other charges to be used for maintaining a Pandit in the Sanskrit College at Mysore or for research or other work at the said College. The executors of the will have forwarded a sum of Rs. 19,486-0-2 as well as certain share bonds for a sum of Rs. 750 as per details noted in the margin. In accepting the munificient bequest for the encouragement of the Ayurvedic system of medicine in Mysore, the Govt. of H.H. the Maharaja desired to place on record their appreciation of the loyalty and patriotism displayed by the distinguished Pandit.

2. The crossed cheque and the share bonds referred to above are forwarded to the Comptroller for realisation of the amounts in question, the aggregate amount so realised being credited to the head "Ayurvedic College in Mysore

3. The Local Commissioner who is also the President of the Ayurvedic College Committee is requested to submit proposals for the utilisation of the amount in conformity with the wishes of the donor, as early as possible.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No.1774-76/M.F.418-20-15 --- dated 4th June 1924 accepting the bequest of the late Pandit D.Gopala Charlu of Madras, for the encouragement of the Ayurvedic system of ---- medicine in Mysore, and requesting me to submit proposals for the ----- utilization of the amount in conformity with the wishes of the Donor, I have the honor to state that proposals have been called for from the Ayurvedic College Committee, and definite recommendations will be ----- formulated and submitted on receipt of a reply from that Body.

2. In this connection, I beg to state that from the wording of the Will, of the late Pandit, it seems to me, that the corpus of the endowment is not meant to be utilized but that only the annual income from the -- endowment is to be used for "the remuneration etc. of a Pandit (chair) in the Ayurvedic College, now established by the said Government in the city of Mysore, or for research work in the said College or for other -- purposes of the College." As the realisations from the cheque and the share bonds have been ordered to be credited to the head "Ayurvedic - College in Mysore", (vide para 2 of the order) they bring in no annual income and consequently it will not be possible to give effect to the wishes of the Donor.

3. I beg that in the circumstances explained above, the net reali-realizations from the endowment may be ordered to be invested in State Loan Bonds bearing the highest rate of interest, if possible.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
